CARNIVAL RULES

COSTUME: Competitors must wear coloured House singlets and blue shorts with red stripe (P.E. shorts). Penalty—disqualification.

MARSHALLING: Competitors are to marshall behind the starting line for their events.

METHOD OF STARTING: All competitors must move to the starting position when so directed by the marshall. The starter's orders will be—

'On your marks . . .

Get set . . .

The gun.'

A whistle blast will signify a false start and runners will be recalled.

ORDER OF DIVISIONS: The Championship Division (Division A) in all events shall be contested last. Other Divisions shall be conducted in usual order — Division B, C, D etc.

RESULTS: At the completion of each event, competitors must return to the finishing line in their respective lanes. Places will then be allotted.

Competitors who are placed first, second, third or fourth must report to the race recorders in order of finish.

PROTESTS: All protests must be lodged with the Carnival Referee within five (5) minutes of the conclusion of an event. Protests shall be immediately considered by the Carnival Committee.

ENCLOSURE: Only officials and competitors who are moving to or from an event, or who are actually engaged in an event, are permitted on the oval.
